WORLD FESTIVAL SINGERS – SING ALONG IN BARCELONA!

For years, the World Festival Singers' Sing Along Concerts have attracted travel-loving choir lovers to various corners of the world. This year, the famous Orfeó Català invites enthusiastic singers to its stage in the breathtaking ambience of the Palau de la Música Catalana in Barcelona. Come and sing along!

Maestro David Lawrence takes over the artistic direction and the mission to unite the skills of singers from all over the world with the Orfeó Català and the Orquestra Simfònica del Vallès to create a total work of art. Let us together breathe new life into the imposing Mozart Requiem and let the masterpiece shine in new splendor!

Spend three days in Barcelona, the capital of Catalonia, and enjoy a colorful culture, culinary delights and, above all, making music with other passionate singers.

The time at a Sing Along Concert of the World Festival Singers is completely dedicated to music and passion for new things. The event schedule leaves enough time to visit the local sights and get to know the country and its people.

After a long time of waiting, it can finally start again - we are looking forward to seeing familiar and new faces!
